LOCAL

Read professional card of Col. Nat Walker.

Mr. T. S. Braswell is home again from Alabama.

Mr. Farley is home this week from Carrabelle.

Mrs. W. A. Wier is visiting relatives in South Florida.

Mr. F. W. Duval and family spent Monday on Spring Creek.

Judge Giles and family are at home again from their visit to Carrabelle.

Mr. C. C. Harrell has bought a bicycle, and is learning to fall off gracefully.

Fishing on the Gulf coast has been much retarded this week by the high winds.

Mrs. J. S. Ferrell, of River Sink, spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. McLeod.

Mr. William Sauls of Tallahassee attended the funeral of his brother-in-law Mr. John Harvey Sunday.

Mr. S. P. Horne and family passed through town Wednesday on their way to Panacea Springs.

Mr. R. B. Council and family and Mr. J. J. Harrell and family are spending this week at Panacea Springs.

Rev. W. A. Weir has been absent the past week holding quarterly meeting at the church near Runround.

Capt. W. W. Walker has nearly completed the big improvements to his gunnery, and will soon have his guns buzzing.

Sugarcane and sweet potatoes have suffered much of late for want of rain. The usual rainy season missed this section.

Mr. Charles Luffe and family have moved back home. Life on Spring Creek is fine for awhile but one soon tires of too much of it.

Messrs. S. P. Roddenberry, and F. R. McKinzie, of Sopchoppy, were in town yesterday, investing in a lumber team to haul logs on the Ocklocknee river.

Misses Florida Walker, Mamie Farley, Susie Cason and Ola McLeod, and Messrs. Albert and Ralph Causseaux spent last Saturday very pleasantly at Panacea Springs.

The weather has been a little squally, but the heavy gales that have been scattering things in some sections and rolling up lofty billows on the East coast have not touched us here.

Mr. Preston Harvey has bought himself a fine guitar, and the melodious strains of music that now flow out of Walker's store are enough to touch the heart of a brass monkey.

All the same, Mr. George Floyd, of Wakulla, is going to make his sausage at home in the future, even if Lueterg proved positively that the bones found in his sausage factory vat were dog bones instead of human bones.

From 8 until 3 o'clock is entirely too short for school hours. Our fathers and mothers attended school from 8 o'clock until 4 and sometimes longer. It did not take them a life time to get an education, as it generally does under our modern methods.

Rev. Mr. Webb, the Baptist minister at Appalachee, preached Sunday at Arran and came over and preached Sunday night at Crawfordville. The audience was not large, as the appointment was not generally known, but all who attended were much pleased with the sermon.

Silver souvenir coins of the Republic of Cuba, are being advertised for sale by Jose Zayas, Commissioner Financial Bureau, Room 1, No. 50, New Street New York. These are handsome keep sakes for those who wish to aid the cause of Cuba. They weigh 348 grains, and are 800 fine, and the Cubans promise to redeem them when they wish their independence and get a Republic of their own.

At Rest.

Mr. John B. Harvey, the worthy and respected county treasurer of Wakulla county, whose serious illness has been heretofore mentioned, peacefully passed away last Saturday at his home near town, surrounded by his family, relatives, and many friends.

Mr. Harvey was in his 72nd year but was usually healthy and robust, except when troubled with cancer, the result of which he died.

He was in town only a short time before his death, and speaking of the return of his old affliction, he said smiling, but seriously, "I'm afraid it is fixing to take old John off this time."

That was his last visit to town until brought here last Sunday to be laid to rest in the village cemetery, followed by a large concourse of sorrowing friends and bereaved relatives.

Mr. Harvey was a man of generous impulses. His greatest pleasure was in doing good and being of service to those around him.

Death's Sudden Call

Mrs. Quillie Vickers, fell dead Wednesday afternoon, while walking in the garden of her daughter, Mrs. Noah Council, with her pipe in her mouth and one of her grandchildren in her arms.

Nearly one hundred years have passed over the head of this noble and good old lady, and yet up to the time of her sudden passing away, she was active and strong and walked on visits to her children and neighbors.

Her husband, the late Andrew Vickers, was a soldier in the Mexican war, and he and she were among the earliest settlers of this section of Florida.

The children and grand children of Mrs. Vickers form a large part of the citizenship of Wakulla county and the balance of our population were her friends.

The Root of the Trouble.

The log cart and team of steers that caused the trouble that recently resulted in the shooting of Sangster by Quigg, has had quite a variety of owners since that unfortunate event.

Quigg sold his interest to Cols. Nat R. Walker and R. Don McLeod for $100.

Sangster sold his interest to Mr. James A. Syfret for $40.

These gentlemen then got together and divided the team. Syfret took two steers for his part, leaving four steers and the cart and chains to Walker and McLeod.

They then sold their outfit to Mr. J. W. Adams.

Yesterday Adams sold it to Messrs. S. P. Roddenberry, and F. R. McKinzie, who are now hauling logs with it, on more peaceful terms, we hope than his former owner.

A Card of Thanks.

ED. BREEZE:
Allow me, on behalf of my mother, sisters and brothers, to return to the good people of this community our sincere thanks for the kindly attention given by them to my father during his illness and death. Such neighbors and friends are a blessing worthy of our highest appreciation.

Respectfully,
M. P. HARVEY.

The biggest fox hunt of the season was enjoyed here last Saturday night. The fox was started by Mr. Voss' dogs about nine o'clock, and ran through Crawfordville, passing through the fields of Sheriff Walker, Col. McLeod, Dr. Moore and Captain Walker. All the dogs for two miles around town, and a large percent of the men and boys joined in the chase. From then until daylight the fox seemed to run for the special amusement of the people of Crawfordville. He made several circles around town where everybody could hear the yelping of the hounds, and it was exciting music.

A fine baby boy was born last Monday to Mr. J. M. Quigg, who is in jail here for shooting Mr. Sangster. This is the first child that has come to bless his home and being debarred the pleasure of seeing his first born has added intensely to the punishment of his prison life.

The steamer Alpha, that has been in quarantine at Carrabelle for some time, has been allowed to unload her cargo, as she left Mobile on the 6th of this month, before the appearance of yellow fever in that city. In her cargo is a large invoice of goods for Crawfordville.
